Name _____ Date _____

Multiplication Facts for 6, 7, 8 and 9: Strategies and Practice

Directions: These questions use facts from the 6, 7, 8 and 9 times tables. If a fact is hard to remember, build it from a fact you know.

1. Multiply.

$6 \times 6 = ?$

_____

2. There are 7 tables in the art room. Each table has 6 jars of paint. How many jars of paint are there in all?

_____ jars

3. Doubling can help with 7×8. Type each product.

$7 \times 4 =$ _____. Double that number to find $7 \times 8 =$ _____.

4. Jada forgot 9×8. She knows that $10 \times 8 = 80$. What should she do to 80 to get 9×8?

A. Subtract 1. B. Add 8. C. Subtract 9. D. Subtract 8.

5. A sheet of stickers has 9 rows. Each row has 7 stickers. How many stickers are on the whole sheet?

_____ stickers

6. Find the product of 8 and 8.

_____

7. Omar fills 6 plates for the bake sale. He puts 9 cookies on each plate. How many cookies are on the plates in all?

_____ cookies

8. Break 7×7 into two easier facts. Type the missing numbers.

$5 \times 7 = 35$ and $2 \times 7 =$ _____. Add the two products to get $7 \times 7 =$ _____.

9. One factor is hidden in this fact.

$9 \times ? = 81$

What is the hidden factor?

_____

10. A garden club has 6 packs of bean seeds. Each pack holds 8 seeds. The club plants 15 of the seeds. How many seeds are left?

_____ seeds