Name _____ Date _____

Pronoun-Antecedent Agreement: Which Pronoun Matches?

Directions: A pronoun has to match the noun it stands for. Find that noun first. Then choose your answer.

1. Look at these two sentences.

"The campers lost a map. They found it under the bench."

Why is the pronoun They used for the campers?

A. The campers names more than one person.
B. The campers names a thing.
C. The campers names a place.
D. The campers names one person.

2. Which sentence uses a pronoun that matches my uncle?

A. My uncle fixed the fence, and then she rested.
B. My uncle fixed the fence, and then it rested.
C. My uncle fixed the fence, and then he rested.

3. Choose the pronoun that stands for my cousins.

Word bank
their • its • his

My cousins packed _____ lunches before school.

4. Which pronoun stands for the kite?

Word bank
its • their • her

The kite lost _____ tail in the wind.

5. Pick the pronoun that stands for my aunt.

Word bank
it • she • he

My aunt read the book, and then _____ lent it to me.

6. Choose the pronoun that stands for Rosa and Ben.

Word bank
him • it • them

Rosa and Ben waved when the train passed _____.

7. Which pronoun stands for Mom and I?

Word bank
her • their • our

Mom and I planted _____ garden on Saturday.

8. Pick the pronoun that stands for my brother.

Word bank
her • its • his

My brother left _____ glasses at the pool.

9. The pronoun in this sentence does not match the cups.

"Kai washed the cups and stacked it by the sink."

Which pronoun fixes the sentence?

A. us B. her C. him D. them

10. One pronoun in this longer sentence does not match the two oak trees.

"After the storm, the two oak trees dropped its last leaves."

Which pronoun should replace its?

A. our B. his C. their D. her