Name _____ Date _____

Subject-Verb Agreement: Which Verb Matches?

Directions: A verb has to match its subject. Check if the subject is one or more than one. Then choose your answer.

1. Which sentence has a verb that matches its subject?

A. The puppies barks at the door.

B. The puppy barks at the door.

C. The puppy bark at the door.

2. Look at this sentence.

"The buses stop at our corner."

Why is the verb stop and not stops?

A. The verb tells about the past.

B. The subject buses names more than one.

C. The subject is corner.

D. The subject buses names one thing.

3. Pick the verb that matches the subject.

Word bank
feeds • feeding • feed

My sister _____ the cat before school.

4. Is the subject one or more than one? Choose the verb that matches.

Word bank
walking • walk • walks

The twins _____ to the bus stop together.

5. Two people are the subject. Which verb matches?

Word bank
share • shares • sharing

Mia and Sam _____ one big umbrella.

6. Choose the word that matches the subject.

Word bank
am • are • is

The kittens _____ asleep in the basket.

7. Which word matches the subject that backpack?

Word bank
having • has • have

That backpack _____ a broken strap.

8. The subject is a pronoun. Choose the verb that matches it.

Word bank
carries • carry • carrying

They _____ the boxes for Grandma.

9. The verb in this sentence does not match its subject.

"The birds sings at sunrise."

Which sentence fixes it?

A. The birds singing at sunrise.
B. The birds sing at sunrise.
C. The bird sing at sunrise.
D. The birds is sing at sunrise.

10. This longer sentence has a verb that does not match its subject.

"After school, Lena and her brother takes the dog to the park."

Which change fixes it?

A. Change takes to taking.
B. Change takes to take.
C. Change dog to dogs.
D. Change brother to brothers.